THE INNOCENTS ABROAD.

Interesting Sketch of the Homeward Cruise of the Weatherbeaten Tars.

Courtesies Extended to Them at Cape May and Fortress Monroe.

Special Letter.

FORTRESS MONROE, VA., Aug. 26,-Pursuant to orders from the commodore, we weighed anchor at Bay Ridge, New York harbor, last Tuesday morning, sailed out and through the narrows, and under the influence of a favorable breeze were soon inside of Sandy Hook and anchored in Prince's bay, awaiting the boat with the commodore, who had gone to New York for mail and telegrams which were expected, l'ending his arrival the "Innocenta," as upon all previous occasions when at anchor, endeavored to hook onto the finny tribe by all kinds of tempting bait. Their efforts were rewarded by eatch-ing about two dozen small fry and three or four shovel nose shark, a skate, and a sea robin, which last act was denounced by an "Innocent," who is a member of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, as outrageous "in robbing the sea."

While here we witnessed the process of "clamming." Innocents Weaver and Wilson, not satisfied with witnessing the clam dredgers "from afar," went on heard one of the ers "from mar," went on board one of the clammers and in one haul each brought forth from the mighty deep the immense number of twelve clams. Satisfied with their her-culean efforts they returned thoroughly initiated as full fledged clammers, and clam-rous for more of the same snort, but at this orous for more of the same sport, but at this point the auxiously expected steamer with Commodore Pitcher's pennant flying hove in sight, and after he had boarded in he greeted the Inuocents with the sad intelligence that he had received a tolegram which compelled him to return home at once. On the turn of the tide, about 10 o'clock p. m., we again set sail down the Jersey coast, and in the morn-ing were off Barnezat light. Nothing of particular interest occurred during the day, ex-cept the interest manifested in our attempts to catch blue fish, which was not reciprocated to catch blue fish, which was not reciprocated by the blue fish, as our efforts proved abortive. Thursday morning we cast anchor at the steamboat pier, Cape May, and soon the Innocents had invaded the camp of the Light Infantry and were the recipients of every attention at the bands of Col. Moore, his staff and line officers, and the boys to such an extent that it would be difficult to individualize without doing injustice to some. Suffice it to say that the combined military and mayal say that the combined military and naval forces had a remnon in Camp William J. Sewell that marks another pleasant episode Sewell that marks another pleasant episode of the present cruise. Among the amusing incidents while in camp was a complimentary serenade by the Calathumpian band, Capt. Geo. Breitharth, leader; Lieut, John Cowie, managing director, and Lieut, Ed. Neumyer, drum major. Then came the drumhead court martial of Innocents Stoddard, Weaver, and Capt. Mosell, for coming ashore in undress uniform and running the guard into camp. Judge Advocat Dingman presided, and after Judge Advocat Dingman presided, and after mature deliberation they were sentenced to be confined in the guard house, where they were escorted by a file of soldiers, but were finally released on their promise not to do so any more. After a review of the troops in dress parade by the navy, the latter retired to their archorage, and next morning were soon un-der way, bound for Fortress Monroe.

Notwithstunding a heavy redling sea, which tossed and pitched us about quite lively, and the "wind dying on us" (to me a mantical phrase), for about two hours, we made the capes of Virginia in twenty-four hours. As we passed inside of the capes we descried a steamer, with a low black hull, white upper rigging, putting outfrom the fort and headed up the bay, but suddenly changed her course and bere down upon us as though she meant business. We soon ascertained that it was the revenue cutter Ewing, on quarantine service, whereupon we ran up our bourges, which scened to satisfy the officials guarding against yellow fever and cholera, as they immediately passed on without hailing us. We cast anchor in Hampton Roads at 10 o'clock. During the afterneon we received several parties on board the schooner, viz: Mrs. G. H. Blood, Mr. C. W. Shulte, cashier First National bank, and wife; Mrs. Cooper, of Memphis; Mrs. Noer, Nashville, and Miss Patterson, granddaughter of the late President Johnson, Greenville, business. We soon ascertained that it was the of the late President Johnson, Greenville,

This (Sunday) morning we were greeted by the arrival of the commodore, ex-Com. C. L. Whelpley, Mrs. H. E. Weaver, Mss. Alica Weaver, Mrs. Leonard Stoddard, Miss Minnie Stoddard, Masters Lincoln and Woodberry Stoddard, Mrs. D. L. Pitcher, Miss Jennic Pitcher and R. S. Pitcher, Mrs. John Walter, Mrs. L. Botsch, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Harding, and Miss Murphy. Right glad were we to see our home folks, and they were treated to an Innocent feast and a sail out to the capes and back, during which several of the Innocents quictly went below and arrayed themselves in the sailors' oil suits. The mate sung out, "All hands on deck; go aloft and take in the top sail!" when suddenly from the forecastle came the aforesaid Innocents, looking to all intents and purposes like teilers of the sea as pictured in various periodicals of the sea as pictured in various periodicals when describing the fishermen of the New England coast, and which caused much surprise and nausement to the visitors. They eft on the evening boat for Washington, and we leave for the same place, stopping en route on the Potomac, to-night, wind and weather favorable; and thus endeth the second chap-

MR. BARNARD DOES NOT RETURN.

But Sends His Resignation, Which is not Accepted, and He is Dropped From the Rolls of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

The departure from the city of Mr. John B. Barnard, an employe in the plate printing division of the bureau of engraving and print ing, presumably with Miss Blanche Burr, also an employe of the same division, has already been the subject of much newspaper comment, and the fact that letters had been received from both parties, dated at Kansas City, Mo., was published in The Republican last week. Miss Burr failed to report at the expiration of her leave of absence, and her name was dropped from the rolls, as has already been Yesterday was the day on which Mr. Bar-nard should have reported, but instead of putting in an appearance a letter was re-ceived from him dated at St. Joseph, Mo., tendering his resignation as an euroloye of the bureau. He said that after what had the bureau. He said that after what been published about him he could not return without making full explanation of his which he could not do without implicating innocent persons and that he would not do. He asked a suspension of opinion until he could make a full statement of facts. His resignation was not accepted by the acting chief of the bureau and his name was dropped from the rolls.

Another Suit Against the Railway Company-Suit Against the District.

William T. and T. H. Walker yesterday filed a suit making the eighth filed against the Baltimore and Potomac Railway company, claiming $10,000 damages to the propon C street, between Eleventh and welfth streets southwest. A bill in equity against the District of Columbia for discovery and account was filed yester-day by Col. Enoch Totten for Hon. John J. Knox, commissioner of the Freedmen's Sav ings and Trust company. It is set forth that the territorial government, as the successors of the corporation of Washington, through Gov. H. D. Cooke, issued to D. L. Eaton, assignce of the bank, seven scrip certificates, bearing date Aug. 1, 1871, and on Oct. 25, 1871, issued sixteen more for work on sewers and sixty-three others. The latter were issued on property owned and controlled by the United States for the purpose of a National Sallors and Soldiers' Orphan Home and the Colum-bian Lying-in bospital. On Sept. 5, 1870, two:ty-two certificates were issued; on March 13, 1871, twelve more, and on May 3, 1871, they issued fifty-four more. It is asserted that there is due the bank $2,896.48, and claimed that the district has either collected the curtificates or sold the property, and in some in-stances canceled the certificates which were a lien upon property, and so made of record. The divorce suit of Alice P. Reed against George B. Reed has been dismissed at the

THE HOD CARRIERS,

Parade and Pienic Yesterday-A Creditable Demonstration-A Washington Man Wins in the Contest.

The annual procession and pienic of the hod carriers took place yesterday. In the procession, which began to form at 11 o'clock, were the Washington union over two hundred strong, a delegation from the Baltimore union of about twenty-five, and the Alexandria union, which was officered by Charles Jackson, president, and Fred. Douglass secretary, and there was also a number of carriages filled with officers of the union, as folriages filled with officers of the union, as follows: Calvin C. Ball, president; S. S. Harris, treasurer; Joseph H. Carr, secretary; W. H. Graham, ex-president, besides a number of friends. The Excelsior band headed the procession, and in the center there was a drum corps. Samuel S. White was the chief marshal, with Messrs. Joseph Haines, William Fletcher, Frank Wade, Androw Allen, S. S. Harris, and Charley Pierce as assistants.

The route covered by the procession was as follows: O street to New Jersey avenue, New Jersey avenue to Fourth street east, Fourth street east to North Carolina avenue, North Carolina avenue to F street southwest,

North Carolina avenue to F street southwest, F street southwest to Seventh, Seventh street to Pennsylvania avenue, along Pennsylvania avenue to G street northwest to Twenty-fourth street, along Twenty-fourth street to M. along M to Rhode Island avenue to Gales's woods.

Crowds followed the procession during the entire route, and the demonstration, one of the largest ever made by this union, was extremely creditable.

At Gales's woods the assembly was called to order by Mr. G. Powells, chairman of the committee of arrangements, and addresses were made by Mr. Ball, the president of the union, Col. Perry H. Carson, John H. Free-union, Col. Perry H. Carson, John H. Freeman, and others.

The contest between Edward Towles, of this city, and N. Robinson, of Baltimore, as to who could fill his hod with bricks and carry them to a designated place the quickest excited much interest, and when the time for trial arrived the crowd about the space was immense. Three hundred and fifty bricks were piled up and the distance they were to be carried was thirty feet. Mr. Towles had carried four hods full while Mr. Robinson had carried but two, and then the swaying crowd breaking upon and then the swaying crowd breaking upon the men no further contest could be had. Mr. Towles was declared the winner and a silver medal was awarded him.

The festivities were kept up until a late hour, and Hod Carriers union, No. 1, under whose auspices the entire celebration was gotten up, deserve credit for the good arrangements, and especial mention should be made of the following accounting to the control of the c ments, and especial mention should be made of the following committee of arrangements, who had charge of this procession and the general arrangements of the day: G. Powels, chairman; W. R. Brent, secretary; N. Robin-son, S. Harris, H. Stephenson, M. Holts, L. West, T. Johnson, J. Gray, T. Kidrick, J. Roots, H. Richardson, P. Price, R. Throng-marton.

Not so Many Boats Out Last Night as Usual.

The expected return of the infantry corps had a weakening effect upon the oarsmen yesterday, as but one single went out from the Potomac house, instead of the six or seven usually sent out by that club. They had out, however, the eight, with crew com-posed of McRae, Fraser, Ryan, Wheeler, Crop-ley, Kennedy, Warden and McKinney; also three fours, one manned by Kearney, Fisher, Doxon and Whittington; another by Noord-zoy, Frey, Thomas and Smallwood; the third by a crew of new men. Kervand and King by a crew of new men. Kervand and King were out in the pair oared.

The Analostans were represented by their junior and light weight crews, and the Columjunior and light weight crews, and the Columbias by their eight, manned by Ward, Kintner, Kerr, Rudy, Leetch, Young, Bartle, and Smith, Whittington going as conswain. Kennedy and Bean were in the pair-oared, with May as Conswain. The ten-oared barge, manned by Zeigler, Harban, Moffatt, Ballantyne, Johnson, Mackall, Beall, Green, Suyder, and Young, with Hollerith as conswain, carried up a number of lady passengers. There were also eleven pleasure boats out There were also eleven pleasure boats out from their house, and eight from Johnson & Baker's. A Wife's Trouble.

For a number of years my wife has been troubled with chronic rheumatism, it being in some portion of her body constantly (except perhaps in the very warmest weather in summer). Last Christmas she contracted : very severe cold, and a diseased condition of the kidneys became manifest, which subjected her to excessive suffering, as the symptoms of gravel became more prominent, her urine being colored, accompanied by a heavy brick dust sediment.

After trying several remedies without re-lief, I procured for her a bottle of Hunt's Remedy, which she commenced taking, and before three days had passed she became much better. She continued using the medicine until she had used six bottles, and now feels entirely cured of both rheumatism and kid-ney complaint. She believes her present excellent health due solely to the use of Hunt's Remedy. WILLIAM C. CLE. NORWICH, CONN., May 5, 1883. WILLIAM C. CLEAVELAND.

Masses, E. A. Parsons & Co.—Gentlemen: My little boy Willite, now seven years of age, up to about three months ago, had been a weakly, delicate child, spending the greatest part of his time in a rocking chair. Nothing seemed to arouse him to share in the amuseiest part of his time in a rocking chair. Nothing seemed to arouse him to share in the amuseiest part of his time in a rocking chair. Nothing seemed to arouse him to share in the amuseiest part of a studied to droop at least two inches below the other. Failing to find relief from any source, and hearing so much of your Magnetic Cure, I made up my mind to try it, which I did, and wish every mother and father of afflicted little ones could realize the wonderful change. He is not like the same child, he began to improve almost at once; his spine is crosked no more, his shoulders are level, and not only those wonders, which seemed like miracles to me, have been achieved, but his general hearth has been benefied in an amazing degree; for my formerly delicate boy in that short time has become hearty and strong, with a remarkable, appetite, and we have difficulty in keeping him in at all. He wants to be on the street playing all the time, seeming never to tire. I am going to keep his appliances on all through the summer. They are too precious to be left off for a moment. If any one wants confirmation of the above let them call on me. Yours, truly,

CONDEMNATION OF LAND FOR WATER WASHINGTON CITY, DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, August 21, 1883.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.
August 21, 1883.

WHEREAS, by section 1 of the act of 1882, ch. 284
(July 15), entitled
"An Act to increase the water supply of the city of Washington, and for other purposes," it is, among other things, provided—!

"That the Secretary of War shall cause to be made a survey and map of the land necessary to extend the Washington Aqueduct from its present eastern terminus to the high ground north of Washington, near fixth street extended, and of the land necessary for a reservoir at that point, the capacity of which shall not be less than three hundred million gallons;
and a fixe survey and map of the land necessary for a dam across the Potomac river at the Great Palis, including the land now occupied by the dam, and the land required for the extension of said dam across com's island to and upon the Virginia shore; and when survers and maps shall have been made, the Secretary of War and the Attorney General of the United States shall proceed to acquire to and for the United States shall proceed to acquire to and for the United States the outstanding title, if any, tossid land and water rights, and to the land on which the gate house at Great Falls stands, by condemnation."

And also that—
"When the map and survey are completed, the At-

house at Great Falls stands, by condemnation."

And also that—

When the map and survey are completed, the Attorney General shall proceed to ascertain the owners or claimants of the premises embraced in the survey, and shall cause to be published, for the space of thirty days, in one or more of the daily newspapers published in the District of Columbia, a description of the entire tract or tracts of land embraced in the survey, with a notice that the same has been taken for the uses mentioned in this act, and notifying all cialonants to any portion of said premises to file, within its period of publication, in the Department of Justice, a description of the tract or parcel claimed, and a statement of its value as estimated by the cialminst.

All of which will better appear upon reference to uch act. And whereas such map and survey have been com-letted. pleted. Now, therefore, in accordance therewith, and under the above requirements, I hereby give notice that the several parcels of land and water rights below described have been taken for the uses above indicated, viz: (a) FOR EXTENSION OF AQUEDUCT.

(a) FOR EXTENSION OF AQUEDUCT.

1st. It is proposed to take a right of way for a tunnel, whose least depth below the surface of the ground will vary from 80 to 170 feet, as shown in debail by the longitudinal section on tracing A; the line of tunnel commences at the auxiliary gate house of the distributing reservoir; thence north 810 40° 22° cast 20,825 feet to its eastern limit at the site of the proposed reservoir east of Howard University.

2d. It is proposed to take and acquire title to the following tracts of land at the sites of the several shafts, viz:

At Foundry Branch, working shaft, about three (3) acres, more or less, located in the valley of Foundry Branch south of, and fronting on, the "New Cut" road.

Branch south of, and fronting on, the "New Cut" road.

At Fnyette Street, air shaft, a lot 50x100 fronting, on Fayette street.

At Fnyette Street, working shaft, about two and one half (25) acres on the left bank of the creek, extending about 1,00 feet down stream from the lower mill dain, and booked on the cast by the mill race.

Chambia road, on tunnel line, a for comprising about 5,00 square feet, more or less, and a right of way for a road 30 feet wide, leading from the nearest public thorough fare to said lot.
